Report on Twelve-Day Workshop of B.Ed. II Year Learners at IGNOU Learner Support Centre – 27108, Shri Jai Narain Misra PG College, Lucknow

The twelve-day Workshop for B.Ed. II year learners, which is a compulsory component of the BED Programme, was conducted in the offline mode from 16 June to 27 June 2024 at the Study Centre 27108. The workshop was inaugurated with the recitation of the hymns of Goddess Saraswati by the learners. During the inaugural session, Programme Incharge, Prof. Perveen Kumar extended warm welcome to the learners. He discussed the programme of the workshop and explained about different sessions and activities to be undertaken during each session. Dr. B.C. Tripathi spoke about the role of workshop not only for completing the B.Ed. Programme but also in the enhancement of their pedagogical skills. Sixty sessions were conducted during the twelve days workshop on various topics and themes, given in the schedule during the twelve days workshop in accordance with the Programme guidelines. Sixteen academic counselors and resource persons contributed in the workshop (list of contributors is given below).

During the feedback and valedictory session, several learners shared their views and experiences during the workshop. They highlighted the key takeaways of different sessions. Prof. B. B. Malik, BBA University, Lucknow and Prof. Vinod Chandra, Principal, Shri Jai Narain PG College, Lucknow were also present. Prof. Vinod Chandra expressed that interactive programmes like this kind of workshop help the learners to not just to learn the art of passing on the knowledge to their students but also hone their communication and pedagogical skills. Prof. B.B. Malik observed that teacher should always place their context in a social context focusing on the development of positive thinking among the students. He motivated the learners to employ their knowledge and learning to make their schools models for other teachers and schools. Prof. Perveen Kumar, Coordinator of Study Centre 27108, appreciated the participants for their active involvement in the deliberations and expected the learners to remain in touch with the Centre. Prof. Tirmal Singh, Assistant Coordinator, proposed the vote of thanks. Thirty-two learners attended the workshop.
